

CO-OPTION POLICY

1. Introduction

This policy is based on the National Association of Local Councils (NALC) Legal Briefing L15-08 – Good Practice for the Selection of Candidates for Co-option to Local Councils.

Town and Parish Councils are permitted to exercise the power to co-opt a person onto the Council to fill a casual vacancy when the requirements to hold an election have not been met (i.e. the vacancy has been the subject of a public notice and less than 10 registered electors have requested an election by a deadline date specified by Dover District Council).

Although seeking 'expressions of interest' is not a legal requirement, NALC recommends that councils always give public notice of vacancies because this makes the process of co-option open and transparent and should attract more potential candidates.

Whenever the need for co-option arises, Aylesham Parish Council will seek and encourage applications from anyone in the villages of Aylesham and Snowdown who is eligible to stand as a Parish Councillor. Councillors or parishioners can legally approach individuals to suggest that they might wish to consider putting their names forward for co-option.

The notice to co-opt will include: the method by which applications can be made; the closing date for all applications; a contact point to obtain more information and where information can be sourced electronically.

The co-option policy will be reviewed in the same manner as other policies the council hold, which is usually annually.

2. Co-option - Stage 1

The co-option of a Parish Councillor occurs when a casual vacancy has arisen on the council and no poll (by-election) has been called. A casual vacancy occurs when one of the following occurs during the council's term of office:

- a councillor fails to make their declaration of acceptance of office at the proper time;
- a councillor resigns;
- a councillor dies;
- a councillor becomes disqualified; or
- a councillor fails for six months to attend a meeting when summoned to do so and their apologies are not accepted.

Aylesham Parish Council will notify Dover District Council of a casual vacancy and then give public notice of the vacancy to give electors the opportunity to request an election. This occurs when ten electors write to Dover District Council stating that an election is requested.

CO-OPTION POLICY

If a by-election is called, a polling station will be organised by Dover District Council and polling cards sent to residents. Aylesham Parish Council will be expected to pay the costs incurred with a by-election.

If more than one candidate is nominated, a by-election will take place. When there is only one candidate they are duly elected without a ballot.

If ten residents do not request a ballot within the fourteen days of the public notice being posted, Dover District Council will inform Aylesham Parish Council that they can proceed with co-option, as follows:

- Advertise the vacancy for four weeks on the council notice boards and website.
- Advise the council that the co-option policy has been instigated.

3. Co-option – Stage 2

Insufficiency of candidates at an ordinary election also provide the Parish Council with authority to exercise its rights to co-opt any person or persons to fill any vacancies within thirty-five days following the date of the ordinary election.

4. Eligibility of Candidates

Aylesham Parish Council may consider any person for co-option to fill a casual vacancy provided that the person satisfies both the nationality requirement and at least one of the local connection qualifications set out below.

4.1 Nationality Requirement

On the day of application, a candidate must be at least 18 years of age and be one of the following:

- A British citizen; or
- A citizen of the Republic of Ireland; or
- An eligible Commonwealth citizen; or
- A qualifying EU citizen; or
- An EU citizen with retained rights.

EU citizenship alone does not automatically confer eligibility. EU applicants must fall within one of the legally defined categories above, in accordance with current UK electoral law.

4.2 Local Connection Qualification

In addition, a candidate must satisfy at least one of the following criteria:

CO-OPTION POLICY

- They are, and will continue to be, registered as a local government elector for the Parish of Aylesham; or
- They have, during the whole of the 12 months preceding the application, occupied as owner or tenant any land or other premises in the Parish; or
- Their principal or only place of work has, during the whole of the 12 months preceding the application, been in the Parish; or
- They have lived in the Parish or within three miles of it during the whole of the 12 months preceding the application.

4.3 Disqualifications

A person is disqualified from being elected or co-opted if they are disqualified under legislation, including but not limited to the following:

- Holding a paid office or employment under the Parish Council;
- Being the subject of a bankruptcy restrictions order or interim order;
- Having been sentenced to a term of imprisonment of three months or more (including a suspended sentence) during the five years preceding the date of application, without the option of a fine;
- Being disqualified under any enactment relating to corrupt or illegal electoral practices.

Eligibility of candidates will be confirmed at Full Council in accordance with sections 79 and 80 of the Local Government Act 1972.

5. Applications

To assist candidates, a co-option criterion has been prepared - please refer to Appendix A. This will provide candidates with guidance on areas they may wish to include on their application forms.

Candidates will be requested to:

- confirm their eligibility for the position of Parish Councillor within the statutory rules (please refer to Appendix B) and
- submit information about themselves by completing an application form (please refer to Appendix C).

Following receipt of application(s) and at the next Full Council meeting there will be an agenda item, as follows:

CO-OPTION POLICY

'To receive and consider written applications for the office of Parish Councillor and to co-opt a candidate to fill the vacancy on Aylesham Parish Council.'

Prior to Full Council, where applications for co-option will be considered, applications will ideally be circulated to all councillors at least three clear days prior to the meeting. If this is not possible, then applications will be tabled at the meeting and enough time allowed during the meeting for councillors to consider the applications. All applications will be marked 'strictly confidential' prior to circulation.

6 Full Council – Co-option Meeting

Candidates will have five minutes to introduce themselves to members, give information on their background and experience and explain why they wish to become a member of Aylesham Parish Council.

After presentations have been made, members will have the opportunity to ask candidates a few questions before proceeding to vote. Note: If a candidate is unable to attend the meeting, the application can still be considered, and voting will be based on the application only.

The process will be carried out in a public session and there must be no discussion between members prior to a vote being taken. Note: where the council are discussing the merits of a candidate and personal attributes, this could be prejudicial, and the council should resolve to exclude members of the press and public.

If a candidate is a relative of a councillor, that councillor should declare a prejudicial interest and withdraw from the meeting.

When all candidates have finished giving their submissions, the council will proceed to vote with each candidate being proposed and seconded by the councillors in attendance and a vote by a show of hands. A recorded vote may be requested (Local Government Act 1972, section 12, para. 39).

In order for a candidate to be elected to the council, it will be necessary for them to obtain an absolute majority of votes cast (50% plus 1 of the votes available at the meeting).

If there are more than two candidates and there is no candidate with an overall majority in the first round of voting, the candidate with the least number of votes will drop out of the process. Further rounds of voting will then take place with the process repeated until a candidate has an absolute majority.

Only those Parish Councillors present at the meeting may vote upon a person to fill the vacancy. Councillors will have one vote per vacancy to be filled. The Chair has the casting vote. Votes cannot be made by proxy.

CO-OPTION POLICY

The Chief Executive Officer will notify Electoral Services of the new councillor appointment, initiate 'Acceptance of Office' paperwork and 'Registration of Interests' within twenty-eight days of being elected.

If insufficient candidates come forward for co-option, the process should continue whereby the vacancies are advertised again. If there is more than one vacancy and the number of candidates equals the number of vacancies, all the vacancies may be filled by a single composite resolution. Note: if the number of candidates exceeds the number of vacancies each vacancy must be filled by a separate vote or a series of votes.

Aylesham Parish Council is not obliged to fill all vacancies but must take steps to advertise for further co-options or hold an election, where applicable, to fill vacancies. Any candidate(s) found to be offering inducements of any kind will be disqualified.

6. Elected Councillors – Co-option

Successful co-opted candidates become councillors with immediate effect and are no different to any other member.

Co-opted members will be asked to sign a Declaration of Acceptance of Office and agree to abide by the Local Government Code of Conduct introduced under the Localism Act 2011. They may take their seat at council and are then able to be appointed to a committee.

Any application can be considered in a candidate(s) absence but, if successful, members would need to agree for him/her to sign the Declaration of Office in accordance with Local Government Act 1972, section 83(3), either before or at the next Full Council meeting.

7. Applying for a Casual Vacancy

Candidates who are interested in applying for a casual vacancy need to wait until the public notice appears. Candidates can write to the parish council directly expressing their interest in the casual vacancy and request that it considers their application when it has authority to co-opt (please refer to item no. 2 - Co-option Stage 1).
